TODAY AT ZION

MESSAGE: This week, we continue a series entitled "Christians at Our Best," inspired by the book Christians in an Age of Outrage by Ed Stetzer. Living in a culture addicted to anger and outrage, it is easy to begin to take on the habits and practices of a world consumed with picking sides, dividing groups, and creating scapegoats. In this series, we will think together about how we can live as Christians in a way that brings the light and hope of Jesus to a world moving from one temper tantrum to another. In the midst of the outrage of our world, we can often struggle to differentiate between righteous anger that seeks to bring about God's justice and the outrage of our world. This week we consider how to tell the difference and James' wise counsel to be slow to speak and be quick to listen.

If you know of someone in our church family, or if you personally need some help, please contact our Chair of Deacons, Chip Harkes at (616) 299-4804. Scripture encourages all of us to carry each others burdens (Galatians 6:2). You would bless us by letting us walk with you during this time.

PRAYER REQUESTS: Teresa Beute is recovering from a heart catheterization done on Thursday. Harv Berens had a pacemaker implanted this week and is recovering at home. Gary Osterink remains at Mary Free Bed where he is undergoing therapy to improve strength and mobility. Pray for Barb Overweg as she recovers from kidney surgery. Continue to pray for those in our congregation who deal with ongoing health issues.

WE EXTEND our sympathy to Bea VanHouten in the passing of her sister, Eleanor Van Leeuwen, on September 30 and to Harv and Harriet Berens in the passing of Harv's sister, Janice Elliston, earlier this week. Please pray for peace and comfort for these families during this difficult time.
