TODAY AT ZION

MESSAGE: Christianity at its core is not about thinking the right things about God or knowing our Bibles inside and out, but about following Jesus. The earliest believers were called Christians because they looked and acted like little Christs, little Jesuses. In Mark 5, we find a crowd around Jesus, following to see what he will say or do next. And a woman who, for twelve years has been declared unclean, sneaks onto the scene to show us what reaching out to Jesus in times of heartache and pain, loneliness and isolation, can result in. What will we learn as we join the crowd and witness Jesus' interaction with this woman?
