TODAY AT ZION

Churches are not places of model behavior. They have as many people struggling with sin, pain, and brokenness as those outside of church. Rather than being perfectly healthy communities, church is the place we can go to acknowledge, face, and deal with our brokenness. The book of James confronts the conflicts, tensions, and mess of church life head on. This week, as we continue our study of James...James encourages us to take a hard, close look at ourselves. He uses two words that might cause us to be a bit uncomfortable, humility and submission. Will that lifestyle help us in our struggles? We find the answer in James Chapter 4.
