

Alaska Packing List

Things to bring:

- Pillow Case
- Optional: bed sheet/light blanket (we are renting sleeping bags and have pillows in Alaska)
- Bible & Pen (JZ is not taking a bunch of extra Bibles)
- PJs
- Light Rain Gear
- Light jacket (or fleece)
- Towel (and washcloth)
- Personal Care Items (Deodorant, Toothbrush, Shampoo, Toothpaste, Soap, Feminine Products, etc.) any liquids over 3.4 oz needs to be in checked luggage
- Water bottle
- Clothes for 40 to 90 degree weather (think layers), Work clothes (may get dirty or destroyed, etc.) - T-shirts, shorts, long pants, sweatshirt
- Socks and undergarments
- Sunscreen
- Athletic shoes
- Shoes/boots for hiking and working (break in any new shoes/boots) - Mountain Warehouse sometimes has good discounts on hiking boots or hiking shoes on their website.
- Swimsuit & Swim Towel
- Spending Money
- Work gloves
- Optional: Daypack (helpful if we will be working away from housing, also going on many hikes)
- Optional: Shower sandals
- Optional: Sunglasses
- Optional: Camera
- Optional: Flashlight
- Chargers/Portable Chargers
- Optional: Sleep mask
- Optional: Extension cord
- Jeremy will buy insect repellent in Alaska for the group (we can't travel with it)

Suggestion: Zip Lock your toiletries and sprays. Temperature changes in plane can cause items to expand outside their container and ruin your clothes.
